

Decorating News

BY ALEXIA BIGGS

Paper Chase

Acclaimed as part of the design revolution of the 1960s, Osborne & Little has re-introduced eight of its most successful wallpaper designs in contemporary colourings. From the Vintage collection comes 'Chinese Dragon' (right), an opulent dragon-and-bamboo pattern. Other than glamping up walls, wallpaper can also be used to cover lamps or create a striking screen. Osborne & Little, through Mokum Fabrics (02) 9380 6188.

Distinctive Home Decoration

After years of owning Harlequin Antiques, antiques dealers Phillip and Liz Capocchi have unveiled a new store in High Street, Armadale. There's a series of rooms, each representing a different area of the home and filled with distinctive pieces fusing the past with the present. Capocchi, 941-951 High Street, Armadale, Victoria. Telephone (03) 9822 3700.

IT'S A WRAP

A clever designer at Linen House has created the Bedwrap, made from long-lasting, high-quality faux suede to decorate your bed base without having to remove your mattress or even your bed linen. Available in nine colours, including white, linen and chocolate. For stockists, telephone (03) 9552 6000.

FASHION UNDERFOOT

Rugs have long been recognised for their art potential as well as a way to cover bare floors, so why not opt to walk on something that looks fabulous? Teaming up with Designer Rugs, fashion designer Akira Isogawa has created an inspiring collection of rug designs that capture evocative patterns and colour combinations. Pictured right is 'Kyoto Number 2', from Designer Rugs. Telephone (02) 9550 9933.

